Flooding in the centre of the capital, Port-au-Prince, has killed more than 2,500 people and affected hundreds of thousands of others, according to the UN. The UN's Mission in Haiti (Minustah) says that 3,100 people have been killed, with another 300 injured. Minustah spokesman, Eric Fombonne, said: "According to our figures, more than two-thirds of the deaths are in the poor neighbourhoods, where the majority of the population lives." The UN says some 170,000 people have been displaced by the flooding. Haiti has been hit by heavy rains and wind since Friday. Flooding is hampering relief efforts 82157476af
